Foreword

On compiling the material for this family tree we are indebted to the heads of families for their co-operation in the securing of the material for their own immediate families. We believe them to be as correct as possible; however, if mistakes were made they were not intentional.

We hope this book may bring pleasure and information to its readers regarding their ancestors and their cousins.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob P. Handrich

Brought up to date in 1957 by Mrs. Ella
Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob P. Handrich.

Our forefathers lived in Germany. Great Great Grandfather Christian Krehbiel and Magdalena Krehbiel. They had two children, Jacob and Magdalena. Jacob was the father of John Krehbiel in West Point, Iowa, Magdalena married Abraham Neff. They had two children, John and Katharina. They lived in Coplantz.

Jacob Handrich married Katharina Neff, born in 1808. They had one son, Jacob that we know of and they immigrated to America in 1844. The father died in 1848. Where they lived is not known, but the son, Jacob, worked in Illinois some time for a farmer.

It is the descendants of this son we are writing about.

 1901 d 1929.

50th Anniversary

Out in a farm in Iowa,
Where the corn grows tall instead of hay,
During June and the month of May,
Lived a fair maiden blithe and gay.

Time, pen and paper can reveal
Her Father's name was Mr. Krehbiel.
A place to get a good square meal,
Of her, Jacob tho't a great deal.

Elisa was her given name,
Can't just say who was to blame,
But Jacob wanted to have a claim
Not upon the river Maine

So Jacob, with his face quite red,
Seriously to Elisa said,
"Why cannot we be wed?"
Quickly to him then she fled.

So fifty years ago today,
Raining in February, instead of May
To her home he went all the way
And listened to what the minister had to say

The strong knot then the minister did tie,
Not to be loosed by troubles by and by.
Then Jacob gave one great big sigh
And started out to find the pie.

So on a honeymoon they went
Just as tho' they had been sent,
To see their uncles who weren't lame,
Their love and marriage to proclaim.

And then one day in the winter
Off the block came a splinter.
Baby Elmer with brown eyes
Could not keep his big surprise.

He into manhood quickly grew,
Then kind Verna to him flew,
And ere many cats did meow
They had really quite a crew.

Next came Arnold big and bold,
Lost no time lest he should mould,
He took Fay without delay
In the splendid month of May.

Two big girls who wear silk hose
On their legs instead of their nose
Have two brothers made of clay
As the result of that day.

Next came William, sometimes Bill,
Who lives north upon a hill.
His wedding vows to fulfill,
Has gentle Marie for his pill.

To their home without decoys
Came three girls and just two boys.
You'd hardly think it by their noise,
Just so many pounds of avoirdupois.

Blue eyed Oliver, fourth in line,
Made his appearance just in time,
Took sister Ada to make this rhyme
For the benefit of a gold mine.

Now they have a family tree
Of which they adore, you see,
Two boys and two girls and no maybes,
Make more relatives a kin to me.

Then there is Ella, a twin of course,
Who holds no real great remorse,
Christ holds her love, not by force,
Always in just the right source.

Now Irene, Esther and Ethel are here,
To make her life wealthy and dear,
Healthy and happy, and full of cheer,
All have God's blessing and need not fear.

Of Clara, Edward, John and all
Wee ones souls, those big and tall,
God's Angels keep, so they don't fall
So do we weep, when he comes to call.

And now I'm glad there's a Father true,
King, loving Elisa Krehbiel he drew,
And of their real future
Nothing really they knew

Now they have all these girls and boys,
They have lived through sorrows and through joys,
We all want their friendship, both small and tall,
But isn't it nice they love God most of all.

Written in honor of Jacob and Elisa
Handrich on their 50th wedding anniver sary, by daughter-in-law, Fay Handrich.

55th Anniversary

How nice that on this anniversary
God gave you health, and eyes to see.
You have good minds and think alright,
His angels watch o'er you at night.

So in this land of strife and war,
Please don't worry, it doesn't help more.
You've plenty to eat, and plenty to wear,
Pray so as to escape the Devil's snare.

I'm glad you are my parents dear,
And that you live to us so near,
You'll scarcely believe it when I say
I'm coming up to see you some day.

Thanks for all kind thoughts and advice,
If we'd heed it we would surely be wise.
But that's the way the world goes on
With blunders and mistakes and cheery song.

So forgive my shortcomings and let's be good friends,
When I'll say I'll do better and make real amends.
God says he forgives, and I know you will too,
Without a great sputter and not a big stew.

Here's many a wish for a big, happy day,
And many more like it is needless to say.
May God's wisdom, Christ's blessings and the Holy Spirit's power
Rest with you now and thru every day and hour.

Written for Mr. and Mrs. Jacob P. Hand rich on their 55th wedding anniversary, by their daughter-in-law, Fay Handrich.

ELMER HANDRICH

Elmer, Jacob, Jacob -

Elmer Handrich married Verna Beachy on July 17, 1910 who was born Jan. 24, 1891. She died March 5, 1957.

We lived on my father's farm 1 mile east of Fairview until about 1914. Then we moved to Fairview and had the Hardware store until about 1919. Then we lived in a car and a tent and travelled out west and followed the wheat harvest north, through the summer.

On April 1, 1920 we moved on what was known as the N.Z. Yoder farm, 3 miles east of Fairview. In 1954 we sold the place to Forest, and we retired, living in a tenant house on which we have a life lease with garden spot and broiler house to raise broilers. Verna passed away on March 5, 1957.

We were blessed with 7 children: -
 Forest J. August 13, 1911; Arthur E. Aug. 5 1913, d Oct. 16, 1913; Fern E. Sept. 12, 1914; Willard D. Dec. 25, 1916; Agnes M. April 23, 1921 d, Feb. 18, 1923; Bruce E. Feb. 19, 1924; Dean E. Oct. 13, 1932 d, Oct. 18, 1932.

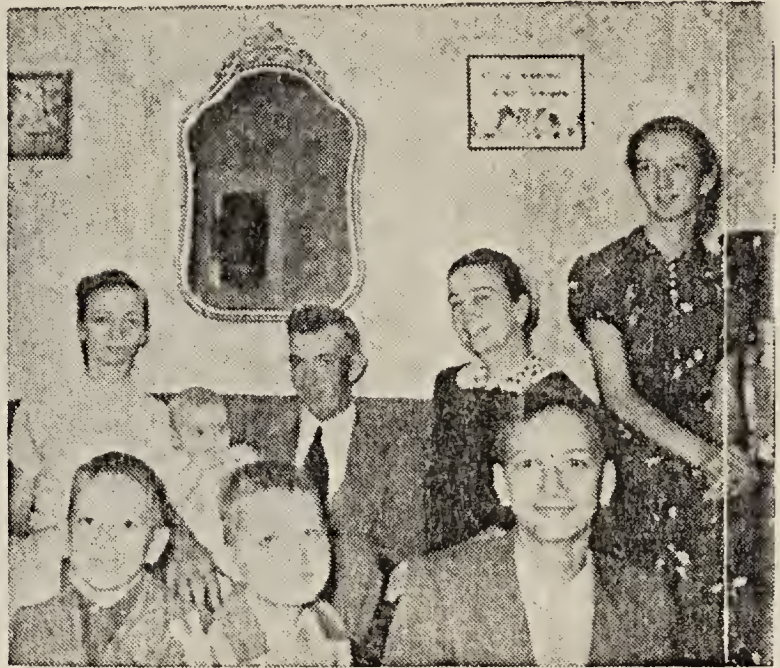

FOREST HANDRICH

Forest, - Elmer - Jacob - Jacob

Forest Handrich married Vesta Zook on Aug. 13, 1938 who was born April 16, 1914.

Mine too, has been a life lived close to the soil. As a child a highlight of my life was a trip with my parents and Fern and Willard going as far west as Colorado. It was fun too, living in Fairview when my Dad owned the hardware store. Then I worked on the farm nearly 3 miles east of Fairview, finally in partnership with Dad. Which keeps me busy to this day. When time permits me to pursue my hobbies I hunt and fish. Life seems complete as we daily gather our little family around the table to thank God for His goodness and to ask Him for continued guidance.

Our home was blessed with six children: June Lavonne, Oct. 9, 1939; Bonita Gail, April 28, 1942; Donovan Bruce July 31, 1943 David Darwin March 27, 1945; Philip Jacob Feb. 16, 1949; Beth Yvette, Oct. 31, 1956.

FERN HANDRICH

Fern, Elmer, Jacob, Jacob

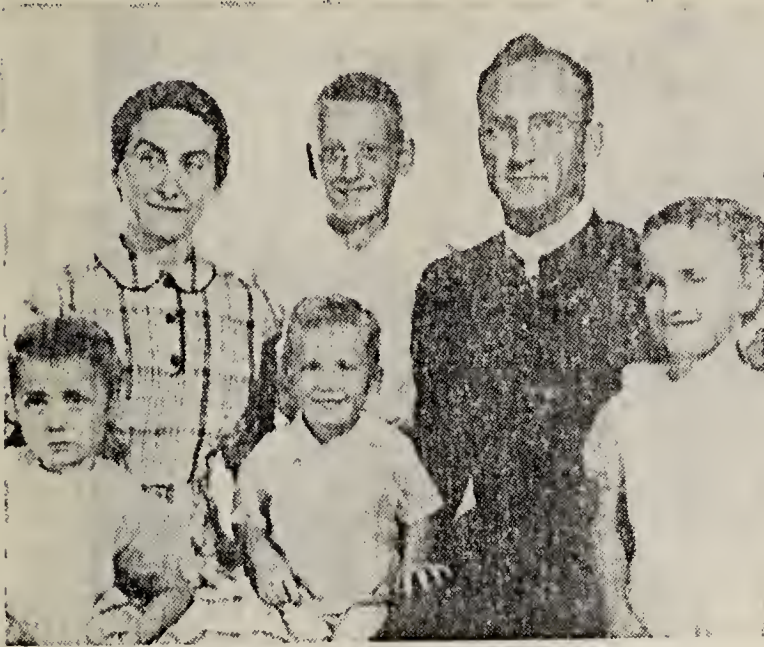

Fern E. Handrich was married to Basil Gusler, September 19, 1937 who was born June 15, 1913.

We were married September 19, 1937 at the home of my parents Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Handrich. For 3 years we lived in a cabin ½ mile north of Fairview. Then bought an 80 acre farm one and a quarter miles west of Fairview. Basil worked at the creamery at Fairview for about 13 years. He tried farming and carpenter work after which he began working for O.J. Miller and Sons in the Feed Mill at Fairview, where he is occupied at the present time. We are members of the Fairview Mennonite Church.

Five children came to bless our home: Owen Basil Nov. 18, 1938; Nelson Lee, Jan. 3, 1942; Clare Everett, Nov. 7, 1945 d. Sept. 8, 1950; Donald Ray, June 16, 1948; Dawn Elizabeth, Dec. 28, 1953.

BRUCE HANDRICH

Bruce, Elmer, Jacob, Jacob.

Bruce Handrich married Savilla Troyer
March 31, 1946 who was born April 2, 1926.

Served in CPS from 1944 to 1946. I was married while in camp. Lived on Mt. Tom until May 1947 when we moved to Germfast
Mich. and was ordained to the ministry
November 1947 after Chester Osborn, the Minister was transferred to Kouts, Indiana.
I cut pulpwood and raised chickens for a living, hunt and fish for pleasure, while Savilla feeds, clothes and keeps the family happy and raises flowers for pleasure. The children enjoy their pony, Trigger, and picnics. The high point of each day is our family devotion which the children take part in and enjoy much.

There were six children born in our home:

Ricky Lynn, Sept. 12, 1947; Anthony Dean
Sept. 25, 1948; Penelope Andrea, Sept. 5,

Arnold and Faye Handrich

ARNOLD HANDRICH

Jacob, Jacob

Arnold Handrich married Fay Hopkins May 30, 1915, who was born Sept. 26, 1895.

I was born January 9, 1891 in Iowa and moved with my parents to Mio, Mich. January 1907. I operated a Hardware Store in Fairview and one night at a party I met the girl I married.

While returning home from California in March 1949, we met with a fatal accident, when Fay was taken to her home beyond.

Five children were born to us:

Lois Marie, Feb. 15, 1916; Wanda Irene, March 24, 1917; Elsworth Ernest, July 3, 1921, Robert Lewis, May 21, 1926; Gwendolin Fay, Aug. 11, 1933 d. Aug. 11, 1933.

LOIS MARIE HANDRICH

Lois Marie Handrich was married to Gerald Peters, Oct. ~~18~~ 30, 1937 who was born April 30, 1916. 30

I was born Feb. 15, 1916 at Fairview, Mich; went to Fairview school, and high school in Mio, Mich., graduated 1934. I was married Oct. 30, 1937 to Gerald Peters. Moved from Michigan to San Francisco, Calif. in 1948. Jerry is manager of a construction firm in Los Angeles, Calif.

Gerald and Lois Handrich Peters.

WANDA HANDRICH

Arnold, Jacob, Jacob

Wanda Handrich was married to Joseph Atherton on Sept. 6, 1942 who was born Oct. 31, 1919.

A second daughter was born to Arnold and Fay Handrich. The doctor was Dr. Wood, who arrived in a real March blizzard to deliver me into the world. I attended school at Fairview. At the age of 12 I accepted Jesus Christ as my personal Saviour, was united with the Mennonite Church at Fairview - enjoyed attending Bible school at Kitchener, Ontario in Canada.

Following school I worked in Flint, Midland, and West Branch. In West Branch I met Joseph Atherton and on September 6, 1942 we were married by Bro. Menno Esch, in the Mennonite church.

Joe worked at the West Branch Milling Co. and we lived in West Branch for 30 days, when Joe was called to C.P.S. Camp at Mederyville, Ind. While Joe was in camp I worked in Inlay City, Detroit, Sandusky in Michigan; and in Valparaiso, Ind.

When Joe was discharged from camp we continued to live at Valparaiso, as Joe was preaching for a Central Conference Mennonite Church at Kouts, Ind.

At this time I journeyed to the Porter memorial Hospital at Valparaiso, where Joseph Arnold was born. When Jody was 3 month old, we took him to Fairview to live. When he was 9 months old, Joe and I attended winter Bible School at Fairview Mennonite church. When Jody was 2 years old, his father accepted call from the Comins Mennonite Church.

It was at this time, while living in the parsonage in Fairview that I made a night trip to the new Medical Aid Center, where Dr. Gehman delivered a little fellow that we decided to name David Elsworth.

In Feb. 1955, the Athertons resigned the pastorate of the Comins Church and moved to 1090 Clovis St., Flint, Mich. where they had an interest in the Farmer's Market. While living in Flint we attended the Mennonite Mission in Mt. Morris where Bro. Raymond Swartz and wife held the pastorate. Within a year Joe had purchased the Bullseye Market in Flint, which was practically destroyed by fire. Damage was so great, that we closed out the store and moved back to Fairview. At this time, Dec. 1956, we are waiting for the Lord to open a way into his work, wherever He leads.

Two children came to bless our home. Joseph Arnold born June 29, 1946 and David Elsworth, born Feb. 13, 1950.

ELLSWORTH HANDRICH

Arnold, Jacob, Jacob

Ellsworth Handrich was married to Mary Alice Layman, June 27, 1943 who was born June 22, 1924 at Lima, Ohio.

ROBERT HANDRICH

Arnold, Jacob, Jacob

Robert Handrich was married to Grace Layman, August 11, 1946 who was born July 4, 1929.

I attended Fairview High School and graduated in 1945. In January 1947 I made a trip to Poland on a boat carrying horses for relief. I took the Surge dealership in February 1947, and in March 1949 attended auctioneer school in Mason City, Iowa.

We have three children:
Douglas Wayne, July 17, 1948; Kay Elaine, July 10, 1951; Ted Wendell, January 14, 1954.

WILLIAM J. HANDRICH

Jacob, Jacob

William J. Handrich was married to Marie Troyer, May 10, 1917, who was born November 20, 1896.

I was born in Iowa March 27, 1895, and moved to Michigan in 1907 with my parents. Received a grade school education and as time went on I met a certain girl, Marie Troyer, and we were married May 10, 1917.

Spent one year at Camp Custer in the United States Army, as a conscientious objector. Plead my case before three Supreme Justices of United States and was acquitted. Wouldn't give five cents for more but who can name value received. Lived six years in Pennsylvania and came back to good old Michigan, farming and operating cream routes.

Six children came into our home; Donna Belle, July 11, 1918; Virgil William, October 21, 1921; Rhoda Marie, December 9, 1922; Paula Fay, March 5, 1927; Edna Magdalena, August 15, 1929, d August 15, 1929; John Paul, November 20, 1932.

DONNA BELLE HANDRICH

William, Jacob, Jacob

Donna Belle Handrich was married to Floyd Esch, December 25, 1941, who was born September 21, 1911.

When I was seven years old, I came from Gettysburg, Pennsylvania with my parents and lived near Mio, Michigan. I attended three regular courses and one advanced course at Kitchner Ontario Bible School. To help finance this I worked a number of months at West Branch, Mich., during which time I spent six weeks in Florida. I also worked at Midland, Mich and for nearly two years helped in the mission church at Detroit, Mich.

In 1941 on Christmas Day, I was married to Floyd Esch. We spent forty-five months away from our home in Mt. Tom while Floyd was in Civilian Public Service. The winter of 1951-52 we spent in Phoenix, Arizona, and in July 1956 we moved into our new home beside the cabin that Floyd had built before we were married.

Two children came into our home. Terrence Lee, Dec. 17, 1942; Rosemary, July 9, 1949.

VIRGIL HANDRICH

William, Jacob, Jacob

Virgil Handrich was married to Ethel Sarah Yoder October 24, 1943.

OLIVE ALMEDA HANDRICH

Oliver, Jacob, Jacob

Olive Almeda Handrich was married to Raymond Gerber, August 25, 1946 who was born June 21, 1925.

I was born May 15, 1929 at Mio, Michigan and attended the Fairview Agricultural School. At the age of 11 I accepted Christ as my personal Saviour and united with the Fairview Mennonite church.

We have four children;
Sharon Ann, September. 6, 1947; John Dale April 29, 1949; Constance Louise, August 10 1950; Daniel Ray, May 4, 1955.

ELLA M. HANDRICH

Jacob, Jacob

Ella M. Handrich was married to John F. Miller, October 28, 1922 who was born March 6, 1898, died April 1, 1935.

I came with my parents to Oscoda Co., Mich., when I was six years old in January 1907. I spent most of my school days at the Biggs school.

I worked at home or as a hired girl until I was 21 years old. Then I married John Miller. We were only able to share the happiness of married life twelve years when the Lord saw fit to take my companion home with him, and left me so alone with three little children, the youngest was just two years old.

In the fall of 1935, I bought a home in Fairview. Then on December 23, 1937 during a cold wintry night our home burned down to the ground. We were very fortunate that we all got out alive. Those were trying days, but the Lord has been good to us, and given me a better home than we had for which we are thankful.

In 1941 my parents weren't just able to stay alone anymore, so they moved in with us, and were with us most of the time until March 1949 when mother passed away, and a year later, father passed away in June 1950.

My children are all married, and I now have nine grandchildren. At the present I am doing housework for Dr. and Mrs. Palmer. Have been working there for three years.

Our home was blessed with three children:

Irene F. Sept. 30, 1923; Esther M. July 14, 1925; Ethel G. March 8, 1933.

IRENE MILLER

Ella M., Jacob, Jacob

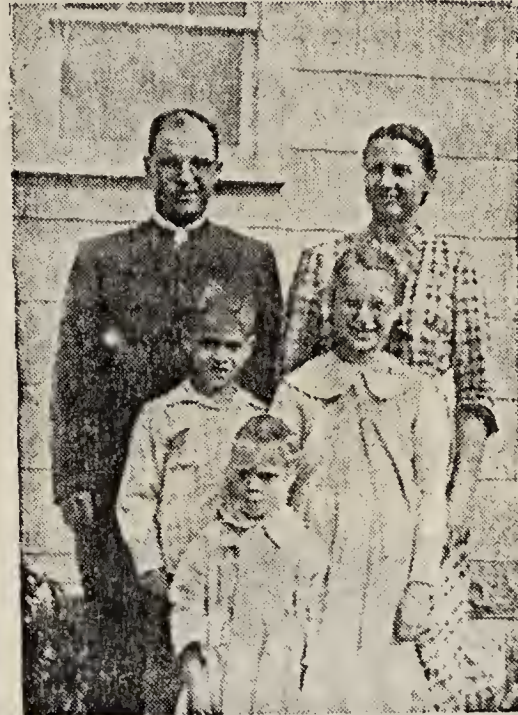

Irene Miller was married to Floyd Yoder December 16, 1944, who was born November 23, 1920 near Nappanee, Indiana.

I was born near the little town of Fairview to John and Ella Miller on the last day of September, 1923. Lived on a farm with my parents until the death of my father, when we moved to Fairview.

Graduated from Fairview high school in 1942, worked in the Drug Store from 1942 until 1944, and then I went to Adrian, Michigan and did general housework.

In December of 1944 Floyd and I were married. He was working on a farm near Adrian. This was where he spent his C.P.S. days. In 1946 we returned to Fairview, C.P.S. days completed. We moved around quite a bit doing different types of work, and in August 1952 Floyd was ordained minister of Fairview Mennonite church. In 1953 we moved to a little farm near Fairview which we like to call our own. It is here where we are living at the present time.

Three children came to bless our home. Carolyn Mae, March 19, 1947; Jason Lee, May 30, 1949; Rhoda Marie, January 3, 1953

Jason, Carolyn, Rhoda

Ethel (mother) Vernell (father)
Gerald, Constance.

ETHEL MILLER

Ella M., Jacob, Jacob

Ethel Miller was married to Vernell Handrich September 9, 1950, who was born July 27, 1928.

I went to Fairview High School for three years, and then married Vernell. We worked on a farm near Mio, Michigan for a few months and then we moved to Dayton, Ohio, where we lived in a trailerhouse, and Vernell did carpenter work for three years. In 1953 we moved back to Fairview, Michigan where we bought a home $\frac{3}{4}$ mile west of Fairview.

To us were born two children: Gerald Dean, Sept. 12, 1951; Constance Renie, January 27, 1954.

Esther (mother) Truman (father) Karen, Phyllis, Maxine, Erma

ESTHER MILLER

Ella M., Jacob, Jacob

Esther M. Miller was married to Truman Zook September 15, 1944, who was born May 6, 1919.

I was born July 14, 1925 and lived on the farm that my father's folks settled on when they came to Michigan, until the death of my father, when I was nine years old. Not long after that my mother and two sisters and I moved to Fairview. I started to school in the town hall, and graduated from the Fairview High School in 1943. I then worked in my uncle's grocery and dry goods store until in the fall of 1944. On September 15, 1944 I was married to Truman Zook. We took a week's honeymoon in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan, never dreaming at the time that in only two short years we would be living there, and calling it home.

We moved across the Straits in May 1946 close to a small town called Gulliver. We now live on a farm which we hope to call our own some day. Our life in the upper peninsula has been rich and full. We have had bear look in our windows and doors, we have had bear carry off our grain and apples and bear grease that I was saving to make soap. Truman shot two bear and had a few spine chillers, when they got closer than expected, especially when he met one at the corner of the house. We moved to Gulliver to help if we could in our small way with the work of a new mission station there. God has been good to us and given us four girls.

Erma Louise, June 14, 1946; Maxine Kay, March 14, 1948; Phyllis Ann, August 24, 1951; Karen Sue, January 9, 1953.

"WHO'S AFRAID OF A BEAR?" Truman Zook, of Gulliver, seems to be saying as he feeds milk to a 50-pound cub spotted in a tree along U.S. 2 near Blaney Park last Saturday afternoon. Zook and Ernest Neff, also of Gulliver, had fun feeding the cub a chocolate bar, two chocolate-covered cherries and a bottle of milk, donated by the driver of a passing truck. The young bruin growled when the men first climbed the tree but quieted when fed. He fell asleep while drinking the carton of milk.

JOHN HANDRICH

Jacob

John Handrich was married to Emma Rotter February 14, 1912, who was born March 31, 1893.

I was born $\frac{1}{2}$ mile west of Dover, Iowa, and went to country school, also to German school. Was baptized January 26, 1897 by Rev. Showalter, in the old Mennonite church, and lived on the old homestead of my father for 36 years. I was married to Emma Rotter near West Point, Iowa by the Clay Grove minister at the Bride's home.

In the spring of 1920 Feb. 26 we moved to Donnellson, Iowa, and lived there for 34 years. I worked on the railrad as second hand for seven years then on the state highway until my retirement in 1953. We then moved to Quincy, Illinois, where we now live at 2904 Whewell Ave., I work at the Bruce's filling station, and Emma works at the Blessing hospital.

One daughter came into our home:
Ellen, May 24, 1913.

ELLEN HANDRICH

John, Jacob,

Ellen Handrich was married to Laverne E. Basinger June 25, 1939, who was born July 3, 1910.

I went to school one year, to the same school my father did, then went to Donnellson school and high school. Did housework one year at Ft. Madison, then went to Bluffton for $1\frac{1}{2}$ years, to Cedar Falls one year. I then taught grade school 1 year in the school my father and I attended when we were in school, then three years at Hickey Grove, and two years at Montrose.

I was married to Laverne Basinger at the Mennonite church by his father, Rev. Basinger. Laverne worked in a social security office at Rockland, where we lived for six months. Then he was sent to Quincy, Illinois where we now live at 433 North 30th, for seventeen years.

We were blessed with two children. They both attend Madison school and both take piano and violin lessons.
